LOCAL NEWS.

Rain, rain, rain, is the cheering news from all over the group.

The Bulletin reports the revival of glanders among horses in the city.

A hack was wrecked by a runaway out the Waikiki road yesterday afternoon.

A midnight hula dance was held at the King's boat house on Saturday night.

The band will not play at Emma Square to-night, but will play at the drill.

Governor Dominis was serenaded by the Royal Hawaiian Military Band on Saturday morning.

"All Maui," writes our correspondent at Kahului, "rejoices over the rainfall of the 8th, 9th and 10th."

A Chinaman suffering from opium pains was uttering dismal moans in his cell in the Station House last night.

Mr. George Markham, Port Surveyor and bride have returned from their honeymoon trip to the other islands.

A drunken native on horseback was putting himself inconveniently in the way of travelers on the Palama road about dusk last evening.

There will be battalion drill on Palace Square this evening under command of the King, assisted by Major Baker and Adjutant Baker.

There were no less than eighteen cases slated at the Police Station before midnight last night, most of them drunk, disorderly, and assault.

The salute by the Japanese training ship, on Saturday morning, was occasioned by a visit paid the vessel by Mr. Merrill, the American Minister.

The Japanese from the training ship seem to be fond of shopping, as groups of them were to be seen in gentlemen's furnishing and other stores on Saturday evening.

The Lyceum was filled to the doors last evening, by the united congregations of Fort street and the Bethel Union. Rev. E. C. Ogge, pastor of the latter, gave a discourse on Christian constancy from the fatal example of Lot's wife.

The "fly" boys were making a nuisance of themselves at the auction sale, Saturday evening, at the Ladies' Bazaar, pinning long rolls of paper to each other's coat tails and performing other monkey shines, to the annoyance of those attending the sale.

About nine o'clock last evening a little native boy was run over and badly hurt on the Palama road, by a buggy in which Mr. and Mrs. H. Bertelman were driving. The child's name could not be ascertained at the late hour when the news of the accident came to hand.

Mr. S. D. Fuller, the General Secretary, having returned from a vacation on the other islands, Y. M. C. A. work may be expected to proceed with renewed animation. The regular monthly business meeting was announced in the Lyceum last evening, to be held on Thursday evening next.

Mr. W. P. Crooks has become proprietor of the Fort-street shooting gallery. He begins by offering a dozen cabinet photographs to the maker of the best score the rest of this month. Mr. Williams is the artist who is to make the pictures. All who know Mr. Crooks will have confidence that the gallery will be well-conducted by him.

There was a large attendance at the Yosemite skating rink on Saturday night, when a two mile race was announced to have come off. Two competitors entered, Louis Antone and a stranger from Hilo. The race, however, did not result satisfactorily to both the contestants, and an agreement was made to have it run over again on next Saturday night.

A good stream of water was struck, at the depth of a few hundred feet, Saturday last, on the site of the projected Kamehameha school for boys at Kalihi. The elevation is thirty feet above sea level. Mr. McCandless is the borer of the well. With plenty of water the Kalihi plateau would become one of the most desirable living situations near Honolulu.

A painful accident happened yesterday afternoon to Jennie, a little daughter of Mr. John Angus, of the Hawaiian Carriage Manufacturing Company. She was spending the day at her grandfather Mr. G. West's, Waikiki, and falling off a low fence broke her arm at the elbow joint. The sufferer, who is six or seven years old, was attended by Dr. Brodie and taken home. She was in a good deal of pain last evening.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

On Saturday Mr. Kalua presented a petition for an increase in the salary of the postmaster of Ulupalakua and Honolulu. Mr. Kaulukou from the officers of the Queen's Own, for $3,600 to buy arms and accoutrements. Mr. Lilikalani, from the Leleiohoku Guards, for $8,000 for their benefit in a similar way. A report was presented from the majority of the Finance Committee—Messrs. Aholo, Richardson and Hayelden—on the Indemnity Bill. They found that the total amount of $61,843.14 was actually paid out by the late Minister of Finance (Mr. Kapena) on the following accounts:—

Expenses of Supreme Court	$ 2,500 00
Interest account on Bonds	6,750 00
Interior Department	4,855 99
Support of Prisoners	20,171 93
Expenses of Civil and Criminal Cases	1,000 00
New Building, Kapualawa	7,192 00
Custom House Incidental	650 00
Interest on Special Loan	9,725 22
Government Surveying	1,875 00
Return Taxes by order of Supreme Court	1,412 07
New Police Court Building	2,920 40
Pay of Tax Assessors	2,747 84
Pay of Tax Collectors	2,087 09

Taking up the items in their order they explained them as being all necessary and having been vouched for and audited. They therefore recommended that the bill pass. Mr. Dickey presented a minority report, signed by himself, in which he claimed that all the expenditures were made contrary to article 15 of the Constitution, which forbids any subsidy, duty or tax of any description being established or levied without the consent of the Legislature; and also says: "Nor shall any money be drawn from the Public Treasury without such consent except when between the sessions of the Legislative Assembly the emergency of war, invasion, rebellion, pestilence, or other public disaster shall arise and then not without the concurrence of all the Cabinet and of a majority of the whole Privy Council; and the Minister of Finance shall render a detailed account of such expenditure to the Legislative Assembly." The minority held that none of those conditions being complied with, the Cabinet, in passing resolutions ordering those expenditures, "usurped an authority to which they were not lawfully entitled and thereby made themselves individually and personally responsible for the action of the Minister of Finance." The items for expenses of the Supreme Court, support of prisoners, and expenses civil and criminal cases, he considered might have been allowable under a very liberal construction of the Constitution if they had received the necessary sanction of the Privy Council, but they did not receive such sanction. "The balance of the items could and should have awaited the action of this Assembly." As to the items for pay of tax assessors and collectors, the minority considered they could have been avoided entirely if the Minister of Finance had used ordinary judgment, as he could "have fixed the commission of assessors and collectors in Honolulu at 2 1/2 per cent, instead of the exorbitant commission of 4 per cent as allowed by him, thereby saving the country about $7,500 during the biennial period, and said items would never have appeared in an indemnity bill." The item for interest account on bonds, and interest on special loan, Mr. Dickey says, "rest upon an illegal basis and should be stricken out. The former was paid on 9 per cent bonds held by the Robinson Estate and which matured and should have been paid on September 1, 1884. They were renewed without legal authority by a private agreement between the representative of the estate and the Minister of Finance, which was equivalent to a special loan of the amount of the bonds at 9 per cent. The latter item was for interest on a special loan made without shadow of authority of law." The minority is of opinion that the late Minister of Finance and other members of the late Cabinet as accessories before the fact were guilty of malfeasance in office, that he and they should be proceeded against to the full extent of the law, and that the said Minister of Finance be compelled to refund the amount of $16,475.22 illegally paid by him as above as interest on matured bonds and special loan. However, as the present Minister of Finance should not be held responsible for the illegal act of his predecessor, and as all the items of expenditure except the $16,475.22 above mentioned are such as ought to have been paid out in due time under proper authorization, Mr. Dickey recommends that the bill pass with amendments providing for the elimination of the interest items condemned above, and the insertion of an item of $5,065.93 for funeral expenses of Queen Emma, and $2,000 for search for schooner Ka Mo'i; also, "that the Attorney-General of the Kingdom be instructed to bring suit against the late Minister of Finance and all other legally responsible for the sum of $16,475.22 interest expenditure above mentioned." The reports were tabled for consideration with the bill. Most of the remaining business consisted in passing the various pension bills on third reading.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky is not a medicated liquor, but a pure, unadulterated whisky for medicinal use, free from fuel oil and all noxious impurities, and is prescribed by physicians. It is a medicine for the sick and feeble, and a beverage for the million, because it is absolutely pure.

Optim Capture.

On Saturday afternoon Deputy-Marshal Dayton, with Officers Tell and Hopkins, visited the Chinese Theatre, King street. The Deputy-Marshal's chief errand was to see what could be done in the way of preventing the occupants of apartments in that resort from barring their doors impregnable against police investigation. The officers improved the occasion by having a look round the intricate passages and secluded dormitories. They succeeded in making a collection of half a dozen opium pipes in as many different rooms, finding them stowed away on the beams outside, under the eaves of the building. One lodger named Ah See was captured with one tin and two horns of opium in possession, the tin having been thrown away on the approach of the officers, but afterward recovered. Then another habitué named Ho Ah Wong was met near the stage, walking past with downcast eyes that did not venture to look up at the policemen. His retiring aspect was regarded as suspicious by Hopkins, who turned and seized him, finding upon him two tins and two horns of the drug. The culprits and the articles were taken to the Station.

A Frisky Horse.

When Graham's dray was returning from Punahou on Saturday last, it stopped at the Ice Works to leave some planks, but in stopping the leader was checked too quickly for the pole horses, and the pole running into the leader's hind legs made him kick so that one of the traces was uncoupled from the pole. Then the driver let go the reins to the leader, whereupon he jumped over the ditch onto the sidewalk, taking the pole horses into the ditch with him, but fortunately none of the horses were hurt. The leader was then disengaged and the pole horses were got into the road again, the leader being led into town behind the dray. The fractious horse was hired from one of the hack stables, and is the same one that a short time ago ran away and smashed a carriage.

Waialua News.

Our correspondent at Waialua, this island, reports abundance of rain, the first real rain this year.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Rain Walker are spending a vacation at this place.

Mr. C. H. White, Vice-Principal of the Royal School, left on Saturday to resume duty, after a week's vacation here.

The Emersons have enlarged their means of accommodation, by renting a house—the old seminary building—on the other side of the river. They offer visitors the privilege of a boat for sailing on the river. With all the added attractions of this favorite resort, city people may rest assured of having a very pleasant sojourn here, any time that they choose to come for a respite from business, or for the recruiting of their health.

A Deserter.

A negro named John Stevens was arrested for running away from the bark California, which sailed for Puget Sound on Friday. He had shipped on that vessel, receiving $15 advance money, and then skipped. Complaint with the consular certificate was laid at the Police Station, but the runaway sailor could not be found till yesterday. As there was no agent of the vessel here to prosecute, the culprit had to be released. He is a different man from the one whose attempted escape was described in this paper on Friday.

Club House Opening.

The Portuguese Club on Saturday evening opened a club house that they have built on Beretania, near Punch Bowl street. They entertained a number of friends on the occasion, regaling them with good music from the new instruments recently received from France. A very enjoyable time was spent by those present. Success to the new band.
